Autobiography

My name is Dmytro and I'm 25 years old. I was born and live in a beautiful township Andrushivka, Zhytomyr region, Ukraine. I'm not married and don't have children yet. I have a girlfriend, her name is Tetiana.

I grew up in a traditional Ukrainian family. My parents used to keep a small domestic farm with cows, pigs and rabbits. I was a real helping-hand for them. I helped to carry for animals, for example, I cut grass, mixed food for cows and pigs, cleaned the barns.

When I graduated from school in 2012, I started to work as a loader in our local supermarket. The purpose of this job was my dream to earn some money for education.

In 2018 I entered Agrarian Lyceum and became a student of veterinary department. There I had some practice on the training livestock farm, where I did feeding, watering and moving animals. I also was taught how to mix food for animals and do cleaning in the farm.

Talking about my hobbies, I'm fond of fishing. Also I'm a sporty person and play football and volleyball.

I have driving licences on cars and tractors.

I can communicate in English.

Veterinary medicine is my passion. I like to work with animals, but most of all I prefer milk production. I would like to get a place for internship on a dairy farm in Denmark, because I want to discover new technologies in dairy farming.

I want to work with my girlfriend.

Regards,

Dmytro
