Autobiography

My name is Veronika. I'm 21 years old. I was born in Zhytomyr, but currently my family lives in the township Cherniakhiv. I have a small family. My father Dmytro and my mother Tetiana work in the military sphere. Also I have a younger brother, his name is Bohdan.

My height is 166 cm, weight is 52 kg.

My grandparents live in a private house outside the city. There they keep a cow, chickens and small pigs. Every summer I rested there and helped. My grandparents taught me to feed and clean up after them.

When I finished school, I started working as a waitress, after that I worked as a shop-assistant. But my grandparents as far back as in my childhood inspired me by their dedication to agriculture. This encouraged me to get an education in agriculture.

In 2019 I entered the Vocational Agrarian Lyceum in Khmelnytsk region. My choice fell on the faculty of veterinary and stockbreeding. My studying is interesting, as students combine learning theory and applying gained knowledge on practice. For example, we did the practice on the training farm where we were responsible for taking care of the animals, feeding and giving water to them, moving the animals, washing the stables.

I have satisfactory level of the English language. Also I speak French and Russian. Ukrainian is my native one. As for my hobby I like sport, watercolour painting, photography, cooking, watching films, reading, listening to music.

Now I'm looking for an internship abroad to upgrade my skills and learn something new from Danish farming. Denmark is famous for its modern approaches to managing agriculture, that's why I am sure there is a lot to learn from. I think it's the best way to expand my outlook, to communicate with like-minded people. I would like to work on the animal farm together with my boyfriend.

Regards,

Veronika
