Autobiography

My name is Didenko Yevhenii. I am 18 years old. I was born on February 2, 2007 in the city of Uman. I have a family. My father Sergey works in the police, and my mother Zoya works in a supermarket, my younger brother Kolya studies at school. I am not married. My height is 181 cm, my weight is 78 kg. I lived in the city, but I went to my grandparents in the village where they have a farm, namely a small farm. I looked after pigs and chickens, brought them water, food and cleaned up after them. In 2024 I graduated from school and entered the Uman National University of Horticulture at the Faculty of Economics and Horticulture. I understand and speak English well, I usually communicate in Ukrainian. I do not have a driver's license but I can drive a car. I have no bad habits, I do not smoke and do not drink alcohol. My hobby is playing sports, I give the greatest preference to football and the gym. I believe that the potential of Ukraine is currently not fully developed, the agriculture of our country is not going through the best times. Now I am looking for a job abroad to gain experience and gain knowledge in agriculture.

Regards

Yevhenii
